What are Cookies

A "cookie" is a small text file created on the user's computer when he accesses a particular web-site, with the purpose of storing and transporting information. Cookies are sent by a web server (which is the computer on which the visited web-site is running) to the user's browser (Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome, Opera, etc.) and stored on the computer of this last; they are then sent back to the web-site at the time of subsequent visits.

During navigation, the user may receive on his terminal cookies from different sites (so-called "third-party" cookies), directly set up by the operators of said web-sites and used for the purposes and according to the procedures defined by them.

Types of cookies used by this web-site

As per the list provided in the table above, this web-site only uses technical and analytical Google cookies with respect to which, pursuant to art. 122 of the Privacy Code and the Provision of the Italian Data Protection Authority of May 8th 2014, as well as of the Privacy Regulation (Article 95, in particular), no consent by the interested party is required.

Method of processing

The processing is carried out with automated tools suitable to guarantee, in relation to the purposes for which they were collected, security, as well as to prevent unauthorized access by third parties and, in any case, in compliance with the provisions of national and European legislation. The treatment is carried out by the Data Controller, by the External Managers and by the Delegates for the purpose assigned to the processing. No dissemination is carried out.

Provision of data

Except for technical cookies strictly necessary for normal browsing, as well as for analytical Google cookies in relation to which you can find more information at https://support.google.com/analytics/topic/2919631?hl=it&ref_topic=1008008 the conferment of data is left to the will of the Data Subject who decides to browse the web-site after having read the brief information contained in the appropriate banner and to use the services of third parties that involve the installation of cookies.

The Data Subject can therefore avoid the installation of cookies by keeping the banner (refraining from closing it by clicking on the "Accept and Close" button), as well as through the appropriate functions available on your browser.

Disabling cookies

In addition to what is indicated in this document, you can manage your cookie preferences directly in your browser and prevent - for example - that third parties can install. Through the preferences of the browser it is also possible to delete the cookies installed in the past, including the cookie in which the consent to the installation of cookies by this site is eventually saved. It is important to note that disabling all cookies, the operation of this site may be compromised.

Data Transfer Abroad

This site may share some of the data collected with services located outside the EEA area. In particular with Google, through the Google Analytics service. The transfer is authorized on the basis of specific decisions of the European Union and the Data protection
